Dear Tom:

I wanted to write to you following the jury exercise we conducted last week. The services you and Jeff provided were top notch and I have already recommended you to several of my partners and other clients. Frankly, setting aside cost, the services Litigation Research provided both before, during, and after the actual exercise were excellent. When you factor in cost, the decision to use your firm not only makes sense-it is the obvious choice. Many thanks and I look forward to our next project.

Very truly yours,

Mike
